NOTICE OF HEALTH INFORMATION PRIVACY PRACTICES

How Lincoln Prairie Behavioral Health Center May Use Or Disclose Your Health Information:

- For Treatment. Lincoln Prairie Behavioral Health Center may use your health information to provide you with medical treatment or services. For example, a health care provider, such as a physician, nurse, or other person providing health services to you, will record information in your record that is related to your treatment. This information is necessary for health care providers to determine what treatment you should receive. Health care providers will also record actions taken by them in the course of your treatment and note how you respond to the actions.

- For Payment. Lincoln Prairie Behavioral Health Center may use and disclose your health information to others for purposes of receiving payment for treatment and services that you receive. For example, a bill may be sent to you or a third-party payor, such as an insurance company, HMO or health plan. The information on the bill may contain information that identifies you, your diagnosis, and treatment or supplies used in the course of treatment. Or, unpaid service balances may be referred to a collection agency to obtain payment.

- For Health Care Operations. Lincoln Prairie Behavioral Health Center may use and disclose health information about you for operational purposes. For example, your health information may be disclosed to members of the medical staff, risk or quality improvement personnel, and others to:
  - Evaluate the performance of our staff;
  - Assess the quality of care and outcomes in your case and similar cases;
  - Learn how to improve our facilities and services; and
  - Determine how to continually improve the quality and effectiveness of the health care we provide.

NOTICE OF HEALTH INFORMATION PRIVACY PRACTICES

- Appointments/Health-Related Products and Services. Lincoln Prairie Behavioral Health Center may use your information to contact you to provide appointment reminders. Lincoln Prairie Behavioral Health Center may also contact you to tell you about treatment alternatives or other health-related benefits and services that may be of interest to you. [If Applicable]
- Others Involved In Your Care. Lincoln Prairie Behavioral Health Center may release relevant health information to a family member, friend, or anyone else you designate in order for that person to be involved in your care or payment related to your care. Lincoln Prairie Behavioral Health Center may also disclose health information to those assisting in disaster relief efforts so that others can be notified about your condition, status and location.
- Fundraising. Lincoln Prairie Behavioral Health Center does not use your information for fundraising.

- Required By Law. Lincoln Prairie Behavioral Health Center may use and disclose information about you as required by law. For example, Lincoln Prairie Behavioral Health Center may disclose information for the following purposes:
  - For judicial and administrative proceedings or pursuant to a court order;
  - To assist law enforcement officials in their duties;
  - To prevent or control disease, injury or disability;
  - To report births and deaths;
  - To report reactions to medications or problems with products;
  - To notify a person who may have been exposed to a disease or may be at risk for contracting or spreading a disease or condition;
  - To notify the appropriate authorities if we believe a patient has been the victim of abuse, neglect or domestic violence. We will only make this disclosure if you agree or when required or authorized by law.
- Public Health. Your health information may be used or disclosed for public health activities such as assisting public health authorities or other legal authorities (e.g., state health department, Center for Disease Control, etc.) to prevent or control disease, injury, or disability, or for other public health activities.
- Health Oversight Activities. Lincoln Prairie Behavioral Health Center may disclose your health information to a health oversight agency for activities authorized by law. Examples of
